March 29th, 1915

President Westbrook,

University of British Columbia.

Dear President Westbrook:

I find that you are not to be back in Vancouver until to-day. Having received from the other Universities a favourable answer to my suggestion with regard to holding a conference at the University of Toronto this spring, I am now fixing as a date, Friday, May 28th. I hope that this will meet your convenience, as it seems to fit in better than any other date with other arrangements.

A room in the University Residence will be placed at your disposal while you are in Toronto.

If you have any suggestions as to subjects for discussion I shall be glad if you will let me have them.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

President F. F. Westbrook,

University of British Columbia.

My dear President Westbrook:

We have not been sending definite invitations to the staffs of Universities inviting them to be present at the Conference, but I know that others than Presidents will be with us, and I wrote to President Maclean that if any Head of an institution wishes to bring a member of his staff with him to the Conference he is welcome to do so, and we shall be glad to have them present at all the functions, and to provide a room in the residence.

Yours sincerely,

President.
